With a background in automotive repair, David went to work at Winnebago Industries in the mid 1980's starting on the line and moving into various roles in warranty, inspection, owner relations, and spent over 5 years traveling in RVs training dealers and managing trade shows across the country.

As Marketing Manager he wrote and produced over 100 training and product videos and developed "The Motorhome School" a comprehensive buyer's seminar designed to help clear up the confusion of shopping for an RV.

As owner of Passport Media Creations, David has developed several RV dealer training programs, the RV Safety Training program for The Recreation Vehicle Safety and Education Foundation, and the accredited RV Driving Safety program being conducted at rallies and shows around the country.

Dave is a leading expert in the RV industry and author of the "RV Handbook" as well as the Managing Editor of the RV Repair Club, a one stop go to online resource for RV enthusiasts who want quality, relevant RV maintenance, repair and improvement video content. Currently Dave and his associates have produced over 200 videos for the site. For the last 35 years Dave has helped develop both dealer and owner training programs, authored safety and handyman articles to club publications, conducted the RV Buyer's Seminar and Handyman Series throughout the country and has logged over 200,000 miles on the road in an RV! From trips into Death Valley , Alaska and weekends with the Grand Children, Dave's RV experience provides informative and entertaining seminars.

Dave is also a daily contributor to RVTravel.com with the Ask Dave Q&A and other articles, a monthly contributor to CoachNet, and RVIA Certified Technician.
