

Howard & Linda Payne quit their jobs, sold their house and all of their "stuff", and bought an RV in 2005. They were only 41 years old at the time. For 13 years, they lived and traveled in their large fifth wheel and then eventually downsized to a Class C motorhome for a few more years. They had no "home base" other than a mailing address during that period.

During their travels, they ran a website for those interested in becoming full-time RVers, and they produced a daily blog about life on the road. In 2008, they started putting on week-long educational rallies for RVers, and they were recruited to present RV seminars at other RV rallies and RV shows across the country. They were "influencers" in the RV world way before anyone was using that term.

Howard & Linda have visited over 50 National Parks, and have traveled through all of the lower 48 states by RV, plus they spent an epic five months traveling through Alaska and Canada. In addition, they earned supplemental income and kept costs down by working and volunteering on the road in National Parks, in National Wildlife Refuges, and at various private businesses with campgrounds dedicated to RVers.

When you attend their seminars, their passion for the RV life comes through as they love to help educate and provide advice to all current and future RVers from weekend warriors to full-timers. Check out the seminar schedule and stop by while you are at the show.
